

Financial Management (FM) BOLC Course Overview

Course Length: 12 weeks 4 days

Proponent School: United States Army Soldier Support Institute, Financial Management School, Fort Jackson, South Carolina

Common Core Training: The Combined Arms Division instructs students on various Army programs and drills. Topics covered include:

- Army Operations Doctrine & Tactics
- Basic Rifle Marksmanship
- Equal Opportunity
- Land Navigation
- Leadership & Communication Training
- Organizational Supply & Maintenance
- Resiliency Training
- Sexual Harassment / Assault Response & Prevention
- Teamwork Development
- Training Management

Leadership and Professional Development Training: The course director and Financial Management NCOs will instruct students on various Financial Management tasks. This training also includes instruction from the University of South Carolina (USC). Topics covered include:

- Brigade S8 Training
- Business Analytics Course at USC
- Commercial Vendor Services
- Disbursing
- DoD FM Certification
- Ethics
- FM Doctrine
- FM Systems
- General Fund Enterprise Business System (GFEBS)
- Military Pay

Field Training Exercise: The exercise is designed to provide students with realistic technical training on essential skills inherent to a Financial Management Support Detachment and Brigade S8. This is a 5 day exercise.

Leadership Opportunities: Officers will rotate through various classroom and field leadership positions throughout the course in order to assess their leadership potential. Students may be assigned to one or more of the following administrative or leadership positions during the course: Class Leader, Squad Leader, S1, S2/S3, S4, Academic Officer, Automations Officer, International Officer Sponsor, Physical Training Leader, Safety Officer, and Social Officer.

Course Timeline:

Week 1 – In-processing, Common Core Training

Week 2 – Common Core Training

Week 3 – Common Core Training

Week 4 – Common Core Training

Week 5 – Business Analytics Course at the University of South Carolina

Week 6 – Military Pay

Week 7 – Introduction to Disbursing

Week 8 – Manual Disbursing

Week 9 – Automated Disbursing

Week 10 – Commercial Vendor Services

Week 11 – Brigade S8 Training

Week 12 – Field Training Exercise

For more information regarding Financial Management BOLC or the U.S. Army Financial Management School, please visit <http://www.finance.army.mil/>