

Mr. Randy Stevens
Deputy Commandant, U.S. Army Financial Management School

Randy Stevens enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1982 and later received his commission as a Distinguished Military Graduate through the Stephen F. Austin State University ROTC program in Nacogdoches, Texas while concurrently serving in the Texas Army National Guard. After returning to active duty, Mr. Stevens achieved the rank of Colonel and retired from the U.S. Army in 2015 after 30 years of active duty service to our Nation. He holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Stephen F. Austin State University, a Masters of Business Administration through the Army Comptrollership Program at Syracuse University, and Masters of Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College. Mr. Stevens is also a Certified Defense Financial Manager with Acquisition Specialty (CDFM-A). A recipient of the Brigadier General Robert C. Goetz Medallion, a Distinguished Member of the Finance Corps Regiment, and veteran of the Iraq and Afghanistan Campaigns, his military awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, and Meritorious Service Medal.

Following his retirement from active duty, Mr. Stevens assumed duties as the Deputy Commandant of the U.S. Army Financial Management School in November 2015 as a Department of the Army civilian. Active in a number of professional organizations, he serves as a member of the American Society of Military Comptrollers, U.S. Army Finance Corps Association, and Military Officers Association of America.

Randy is married and has two adult children.
