

Uniform Requirements / Packing List

Uniform Requirements: Officers are responsible for procuring and maintaining uniforms appropriate to their assigned duties. The Financial Management School recommends active and reserve personnel possess the items listed below. If you do not have these uniform items, you may purchase them while at Fort Jackson, but it is highly encouraged that you arrive to Fort Jackson with the items already on hand. There will be at least one formal social function while your course is in session as well as graduation. The uniform will be the Army Service Uniform. All personnel must possess the Army Combat Uniform (ACU) and the Army Physical Fitness Uniform (APFU). The ACU uniform will be the primary class uniform during the course. Listed below are the minimum components needed of each uniform.

Uniform Notes:

- Unit patch may be either the student's gaining units if known; otherwise, it will be the SSI patch.
- The ACU Cap will be worn by students. The only time when officers may wear their beret is while in the ASU.
- The Army Physical Fitness Uniform (APFU) must be worn at FMBOLC. An orange reflective belt (stretchy) is required as a component of the APFU. It will be provided to each student during their CIF issue and is also available from Clothing & Sales for approximately $5.00. Subdue rank will be worn on the reflective belt, 1" from the buckle on the right hand side.
- Ample opportunity is available to enjoy the local area and have fun. Appropriate civilian/leisure attire will be needed for the course. Additionally, you will want to bring at least one semi-formal outfit (suit for men/dress or pantsuit for women) in the event your class is invited to a community event requiring such attire.

- Minimalist Shoes are not authorized.
