

Mr. Randy Stevens

Deputy Commandant, U.S. Army Finance & Comptroller School

Mr. Randy Stevens enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1982 and received his commission in 1987 as a Distinguished Military Graduate through the Stephen F. Austin State University ROTC program in Nacogdoches, Texas. Throughout his military career, Mr. Stevens served in a myriad of command and staff positions in support of Army finance operations and resource management.

A veteran of the Iraq and Afghanistan Campaigns, Mr. Stevens achieved the rank of colonel and retired from the U.S. Army in 2015 after 30 years of active duty service to our Nation. Following his retirement, Mr. Stevens assumed duties as the Deputy Commandant of the U.S. Army Finance and Comptroller School in November 2015 as a Department of the Army Civilian. Active in a number of professional organizations, he serves as a member of the American Society of Military Comptrollers, U.S. Army Finance Corps Association, and Military Officers Association of America.

Mr. Stevens' education credentials include a Bachelor of Business Administration from Stephen F. Austin State University, a Masters of Business Administration through the Army Comptrollership Program at Syracuse University, and a Masters of Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College. His professional military education includes the Finance Officer Basic and Advanced Courses, the Army Command and General Staff College, and the Army War College. Mr. Stevens also maintains a Department of Defense Financial Management Level 3 certification, and his professional certification as a Certified Defense Financial Manager with Acquisition Specialty (CDFM-A).

Mr. Stevens has earned a number of awards and decorations, to include the Legion of Merit and Bronze Star Medal. He is a recipient of the Brigadier General Robert C. Goetz, Distinguished Member of the Regiment, and Nathan Towson medallions for his contributions and career achievements in support of the Army Finance Corps.

Mr. Stevens has been married for over 35 years and has two adult children.

